

S U M M A R Y

Editorial	7-10
Stéphane TRÉBUCQ
1. Key factors in understanding South Korea’s Covid-19 crisis management model: Scientific and political dimensions	11-22
Tobin IM
2. A cultural reading of the public management of the Covid-19 crisis in Vietnam	23-28
Hien DO BENOIT – Benjamin BENOIT
3. Consent to effort and Covid-19: How a caring managerial approach contributes to public management?	29-36
Manel BENZERAFA-ALILAT – Caroline ARDELET
4. Facing the crisis: Covid-19, a new challenge for public action efficiency	37-48
Victor DUMIOT – Catherine de LA ROBERTIE
5. Multi-level governance of the Covid-19 crisis in France, which failures and successes?	49-55
Céline DU BOYS – Marius BERTOLUCCI
6. Impact of Covid-19 Crisis on Local Public Policy Management: Issues and Solutions	57-63
David CARASSUS – Gwenaël LEBLONG-MASCLET
7. French local authorities facing the Covid crisis: Balancing fragility with organisational agility and local innovation capabilities	65-72
Jérôme DUPUIS – Pierre MARIN
8. Covid-19 and French regional budgets: austerity or “whatever it takes”?	73-79
Muriel MICHEL-CLUPOT – Serge ROUOT
9. Covid-19 and organising university studies: directives and adaptations	81-97
Gilles ROUET – Stela RAYTCHEVA – Thierry CÔME
10. Museums in Crisis: A Proposed Taxonomy of Museums’ Resilience in Times of Covid	99-110
Bérénice KÜBLER – Djelloul AREZKI – Edina SOLDÓ

S U M M A R Y

- 11. Covid-19 crisis public management in the cultural sector: perception of public responses and well-being at work in performing arts associations 111-117
Caroline DEMEYÈRE – Stéphanie HAVET-LAURENT – Damien RICHARD
- 12. Experiential learning in extreme situations: the case of the French national Fire Officers Academy in managing the reception and accommodation of returnees from Wuhan 119-126
Markolf JOSSOU – Anaïs GAUTIER – Solange HERNANDEZ – Bruno TIBERGHIE
- 13. Crisis management in residential care facilities for the elderly: the role of local stakeholder networks 127-132
Nabil BIKOURANE – Roula MASOU
- 14. Caring management as an actionable lever for handling the Covid-19 crisis. The case of a nonprofit nursing home in France 133-138
Christelle BRUYÈRE – Nelly MASSARD
- 15. Covid health crisis: an enabling context? 139-145
Christel BEAUCOURT – Laëticia ROUX
- 16. Lessons from the Covid crisis for complexity management: the One Health perspective 147-154
Ariane CHAMOIN – Raja RICHTER – Aletta BONN – Guy PE'ER – Étienne MACLOUF
- 17. Hospital Management and Covid-19: From Proof of Facts to Proof of Truth 155-159
Didier VINOT
- 18. The values of New Public Management and New Public Governance: barrier or opportunity for Covid-19 crisis management in France? Hospitals as a case illustrations 161-170
Pierre-Charles PUPION
- 19. The Covid-19 vaccine: A global public good? A wake-up call from social welfare theory to the commons 171-177
David HURON
- 20. The Covid-19 pandemic: Crisis analysis and review of public policies facilitating an exit from this systemic crisis 179-184
Gilles BAROUCH – Frédéric PONSIGNON